Bill McCarney Must Have Exaggerated Ideas of McCarty's Worth, or He Wouldn't Demand $30,000 for Luther to Fight Tommy Burns in Paris.

Copyright, 1918, by The Press Publishing Co., (The New York World). T'S great to be crazy.

There's Billy McCarney, general asking $30,000 to fight Tommy Burns twenty rounds in Paris next June.
William doesn't think much of Luther as a drawing card. Or perhaps he doesn't want to have Luther fight Tommy. Or perhaps he thinks M'sieu drome in Paris and invite a bunch of kings and presidents to see the scraps, is joking. Or perhaps he thinks M'sieu Klegin hasn't the coin to put up.

Whatever It is, a demand for $30,000to pay Luther $500 a minute-looks a good deal like a joke. McCarney says he wouldn't demand that if Burns hadn't demanded it when he fough' Johnson. Presumably he means this as a rebuke to Burns.

But things were slightly different that match. Tommy Burns was world's champion, with a clear title. He didn't get his "championship" by the simple expedient of meeting a second rate heavyweight in a bout which the promoter advertised as a "championship" to increase the gate receipts. He earned it. He beat the claimants to the title in this country, knocked out the invading champion of Australia went to England and knocked out Gun

Whatever Chance is to be paid, he'll earn it. And it'll be much more pleas-ant for the New York fans to see Frank Chance reaching for some other city's pennant than to have him galloping in here with a rough and ready bunch of well trained warriors bent on pushing little old New York right off the map.

N order to get up wind and endurance, members of the Columbia varsity squad which goes into door jogs along Riverside Drive, no matter how cold or inclement the weather may be. The distance covered will be from One Hundred and Sixteenth street, up the driveway, around Grant's Tomb and then back to the university symnasium. Coach Jim luce has prescribed the runs and declares that they are an excellent way of hardening the men for preliminary training. From now on until outdoor weather permits practice at Edgewater the machines will be used. The new eight at Poughkeepsie in June is now completed by A. E. DRESIDENT FRANK FARRELL of the New York American League Bo Basebali Club arrived back in town to-day on the Twentieth Century Limited, tired but as happy as a lark signed as manager of the Highlanders The club leaders allpped into the Grand Central Station like any ordinary com-muter at 10.30 this morning. There was some uncertainty as to what train Mr Farrell would arrive on, consequently theer was a reception of but two to club and an Evening World reporter.
"Much obliged, Tom,' said Mr. Farrel after being congratulated by his secretary for his efforts in landing the great est catch of all times in baseball. "We've certainly got him." and the Highlander chief looked admiringly at a ulky travelling bag carefully guardo by two negro porters wherein rests the

"I'm awfully tired and you must ex cuse me from making a statement," said back to the office, where a great amount of business must be attended to, and if you will come around later in the day I will have a statement that will be of great interest to the fans."

Summoning a taxicab President Farrell and Secretary Davis drove burriedly to the offices of the club, No. 20) Fifth avenue, where Business Manager Arthur Irwin had the office staff lined up to welcome the boss. Piled high on Mr. Farrel's desk were hundreds of got going and by driving in heavy blows to the body and face soon had Moore in distress. When the sixth round started Moore could hardly raise his hands, and after Chancy had landed a few stiff panches in his stomach Keferee Corbett stopped the bout.

In the second bout Harry Tracey of Philadelphia defeated lack Doyle of this city in a bout which was more like a buriesque than a boxing contest. In the main bout Kid Black, the fast little west side figure, handed "Babe" Dayle a severe lacing. Black's right awings to the Jaw more than once had Davis in a weakened condition.
